Housing Security Benefit

\sim Payment of rent to landlords on behalf of tenants \sim

For this scheme, the City will make rent payments to landlords (or real estate agencies) on behalf of tenants who are having difficulty affording rent, due to loss of employment or decrease in income.

Foreign residents, international students, and freelance workers are also eligible to apply. The period during which your rent will be paid for is three months, or at most, up to nine months.

Eligibility for Benefit Application

Those to whom all of the following conditions (① to ⑥) apply are eligible to receive this subsidy.

- ① You are unable to afford rent because: you experienced a decrease in income as a result of unavoidable circumstances, or you had resigned from a job within the past two years which led to a decrease in income.
- ② If the total amount of income of the applicant and the household members that they live with falls below the income criteria. The benefit amount depends on the number of household members and rent amount. For more details, please enquire at your Ward Office.
- ③ The total amount of savings of a household falls below that of the criteria.
 For information regarding the criteria, please enquire at your Ward office.
- ④ For those who are unemployed: they must be actively searching for work.
- ⑤ Neither the applicant nor their household members are receiving any other similar housing security benefits provided by municipalities or other organizations. *It is possible for one to receive housing security benefit and vocational training benefit simultaneously.
- 6 Neither the applicant nor their household members are members of a crime syndicate.
